For the great God who called me has given me, also, a glimpse of His glory. Kathryn Kuhlman introduced the Holy Spirit to a generation who knew Him not. Thousands were born again and healed by the power of God during her miracle services. While most people knew Kathryn Kuhlman only as a woman of miracles, her most lasting contribution to the kingdom is her teaching. Her daily radio broadcasts were gems of truth and wit. This book captures Kathryn's spoken wisdom while also telling the stories of the miracle healings she witnessed. Hundreds of thousands bought her only authorized biography, Daughter of Destiny, to know her better. Then before she died in 1976 she told her biographer, Jamie Buckingham, "Tell it all." He realized that what she taught was even more important than what she did. That realization birthed A Glimpse Into Glory. The short chapters that compose A Glimpse Into Glory carefully transcribed and edited from Kathryn's radio teachings represent some of the best messages she preached around the nation. Several are unpublished statements she gave to various magazines and newspapers, taken verbatim from interview tapes. What she had to say gives us not only insight into a woman God used as a prophetic leader, but also provides something far more important: glimpses into His glory.

All the while, prosperity preachers exploit the poor and the needy to stockpile their riches. What can followers of the true gospel do to combat the deception? Nearly two decades ago Hank Hanegraaff's award-winning Christianity in Crisis alerted the world to the dangers of a cultic movement within Christianity that threatened to undermine the very foundation of biblical faith. But in the 21st century, there are new dangers—new teachers who threaten to do more damage than the last. These are not obscure teachers that Hanegraaff unmasks. We know their names. We have seen their faces, sat in their churches, and heard them shamelessly preach and promote the false pretexts of a give-to-get gospel. They are virtual rock stars who command the attention of presidential candidates and media moguls. Through make-believe miracles, urban legends, counterfeit Christs, and twisted theological reasoning, they peddle an occult brand of metaphysics that continues to shipwreck the faith of millions around the globe: "God cannot do anything in this earthly realm unless we give Him permission." "Keep saying it—I have equality with God—talk yourself into it." "Being poor is a sin." "The Jews were not rejecting Jesus as Messiah; it was Jesus who was refusing to be the Messiah to the Jews!" "You create your own world the same way God creates His. He speaks, and things happen; you speak, and they happen." Christianity in Crisis: 21st Century exposes darkness to light, pointing us back to a Christianity centered in Christ. From the Preface: "Having lost the ability to think biblically, postmodern Christians are being transformed from cultural change agents and initiators into cultural conformists and imitators. Pop culture beckons, and postmodern Christians have taken the bait. As a result, the biblical model of faith has given way to an increasingly bizarre array of fads and formulas."
