Blest are you who are heart hungry for the true Christ. Blest are you who are bent on God's will. Blest are you who know we are in trouble and in great need of Christ's teachings and God's helping grace. Blest are you who know that repentance is to be called for and it is to be acted out. Whenever we sin, we know (as John says) that "if we confess our sins, [God] is faithful and just and will forgive our sins" for the sake of Jesus our Savior (1 John 1:9). If repentance becomes a "game" with God, if we don't really want or intend to stop committing a certain sin (say stealing), and if we go on stealing and living always in that
