Sep 29, 2020 · Death & Rebirth has an interesting role in Neon Genesis Evangelion 's story mainly because it's completely irrelevant to understanding the story at large. Originally released in March of 1997, Death & Rebirth was a two-part film meant to recap audiences for The End of Evangelion while offering a short sneak peek into the upcoming finale. Death itself recaps the first 24 episodes as

Mar 11, 2021 · Even before getting into it I knew that Neon Genesis Evangelion is weird. I've seen mention of how things kind of unravel and that how the show is perhaps more an exploration of the psychology of the people involved than it is about big robots fighting weird creatures. I've also heard that the ending is notoriously strange and unsatisfying.
